The adventurer bursary

Do your friends describe you as adventurous? Are you always eager to try something new? Are you ready to discover a new country and its culture? We have the program for you!

AFS Canada is offering the chance to one lucky participant to spend a school year in a mystery destination!
Instead of choosing your host country, you will apply for the program without knowing where you will go. Participant will find out the destination only after the selection process is completed. The host country will be one of the 50+ AFS partner countries that we work with around the world.

For more information, contact Stéphanie Girouard:
