

Global Citizenship Education: Essential for Employability and the 21st Century Workforce

A Global Forum by AFS Intercultural Programs and British Council

10 October 2017 | Accra, Ghana

9:00 - 10:00
REGISTRATION

10:00 - 10:30

Welcome

- Daniel Obst, President and CEO of AFS Intercultural Programs
- Allan Rutt, Director of British Council Ghana
- Kwesi Yankah, Minister of State for Tertiary Education in Ghana

10:40 - 11:00

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

The why and the how of active global citizenship now

Vishakha Desai, Chair of the Board of Trustees of AFS Intercultural Programs

11:00 - 12:00

PANEL DISCUSSION

Global competence in Africa: Preparing youth for the 21st century workforce

Moderator:

Melissa Liles, Chief Education Officer, AFS Intercultural Programs

Speakers:

- Daniel Dotse, CEO of Teach for Ghana
- Millicent Adjei, Associate Director of Diversity and International Programs at Ashesi University
- Christabel Dadzie, Social Protection Specialist at World Bank Group and the founder of Ahaspora Young Professionals

12:00 - 13:00

CLOSING AND LIGHT LUNCH

Supported by:

