Learn English In India

Four great religions came into being in India: Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism and Sikhism. Twenty-three official languages are recognised. The Indian coastline stretches out over seven thousand kilometres and the country counts a billion and a half inhabitants. India is the second largest populated country in the world.

In our country, English is important for a number of reasons. India is a land of diversity. Different people speak different languages. A person of Tamil Nadu does not speak Hindi. So he can't understand Hindi of a person from North India. However he can understand in English.

English is a link language. Different people can communicate with one another with the help of English. Secondly, all advanced knowledge in science, technology and medicine is available in English. The results of the latest researches come to India through the medium of English. If we give up English, we will lag behind in the higher fields of study. Today the world has become one family.

It is all due to English. English is an international language. English is the language of the Constitution, the Supreme Court, the High Courts and official departments. English is now firmly rooted in the soil of India. It has become a part of Indian life. Thus English has great importance for the integrity of India. It is accepted as language in our country for the better development of the country.

Why Learn English In India?

Entertainment & Cultural Understanding

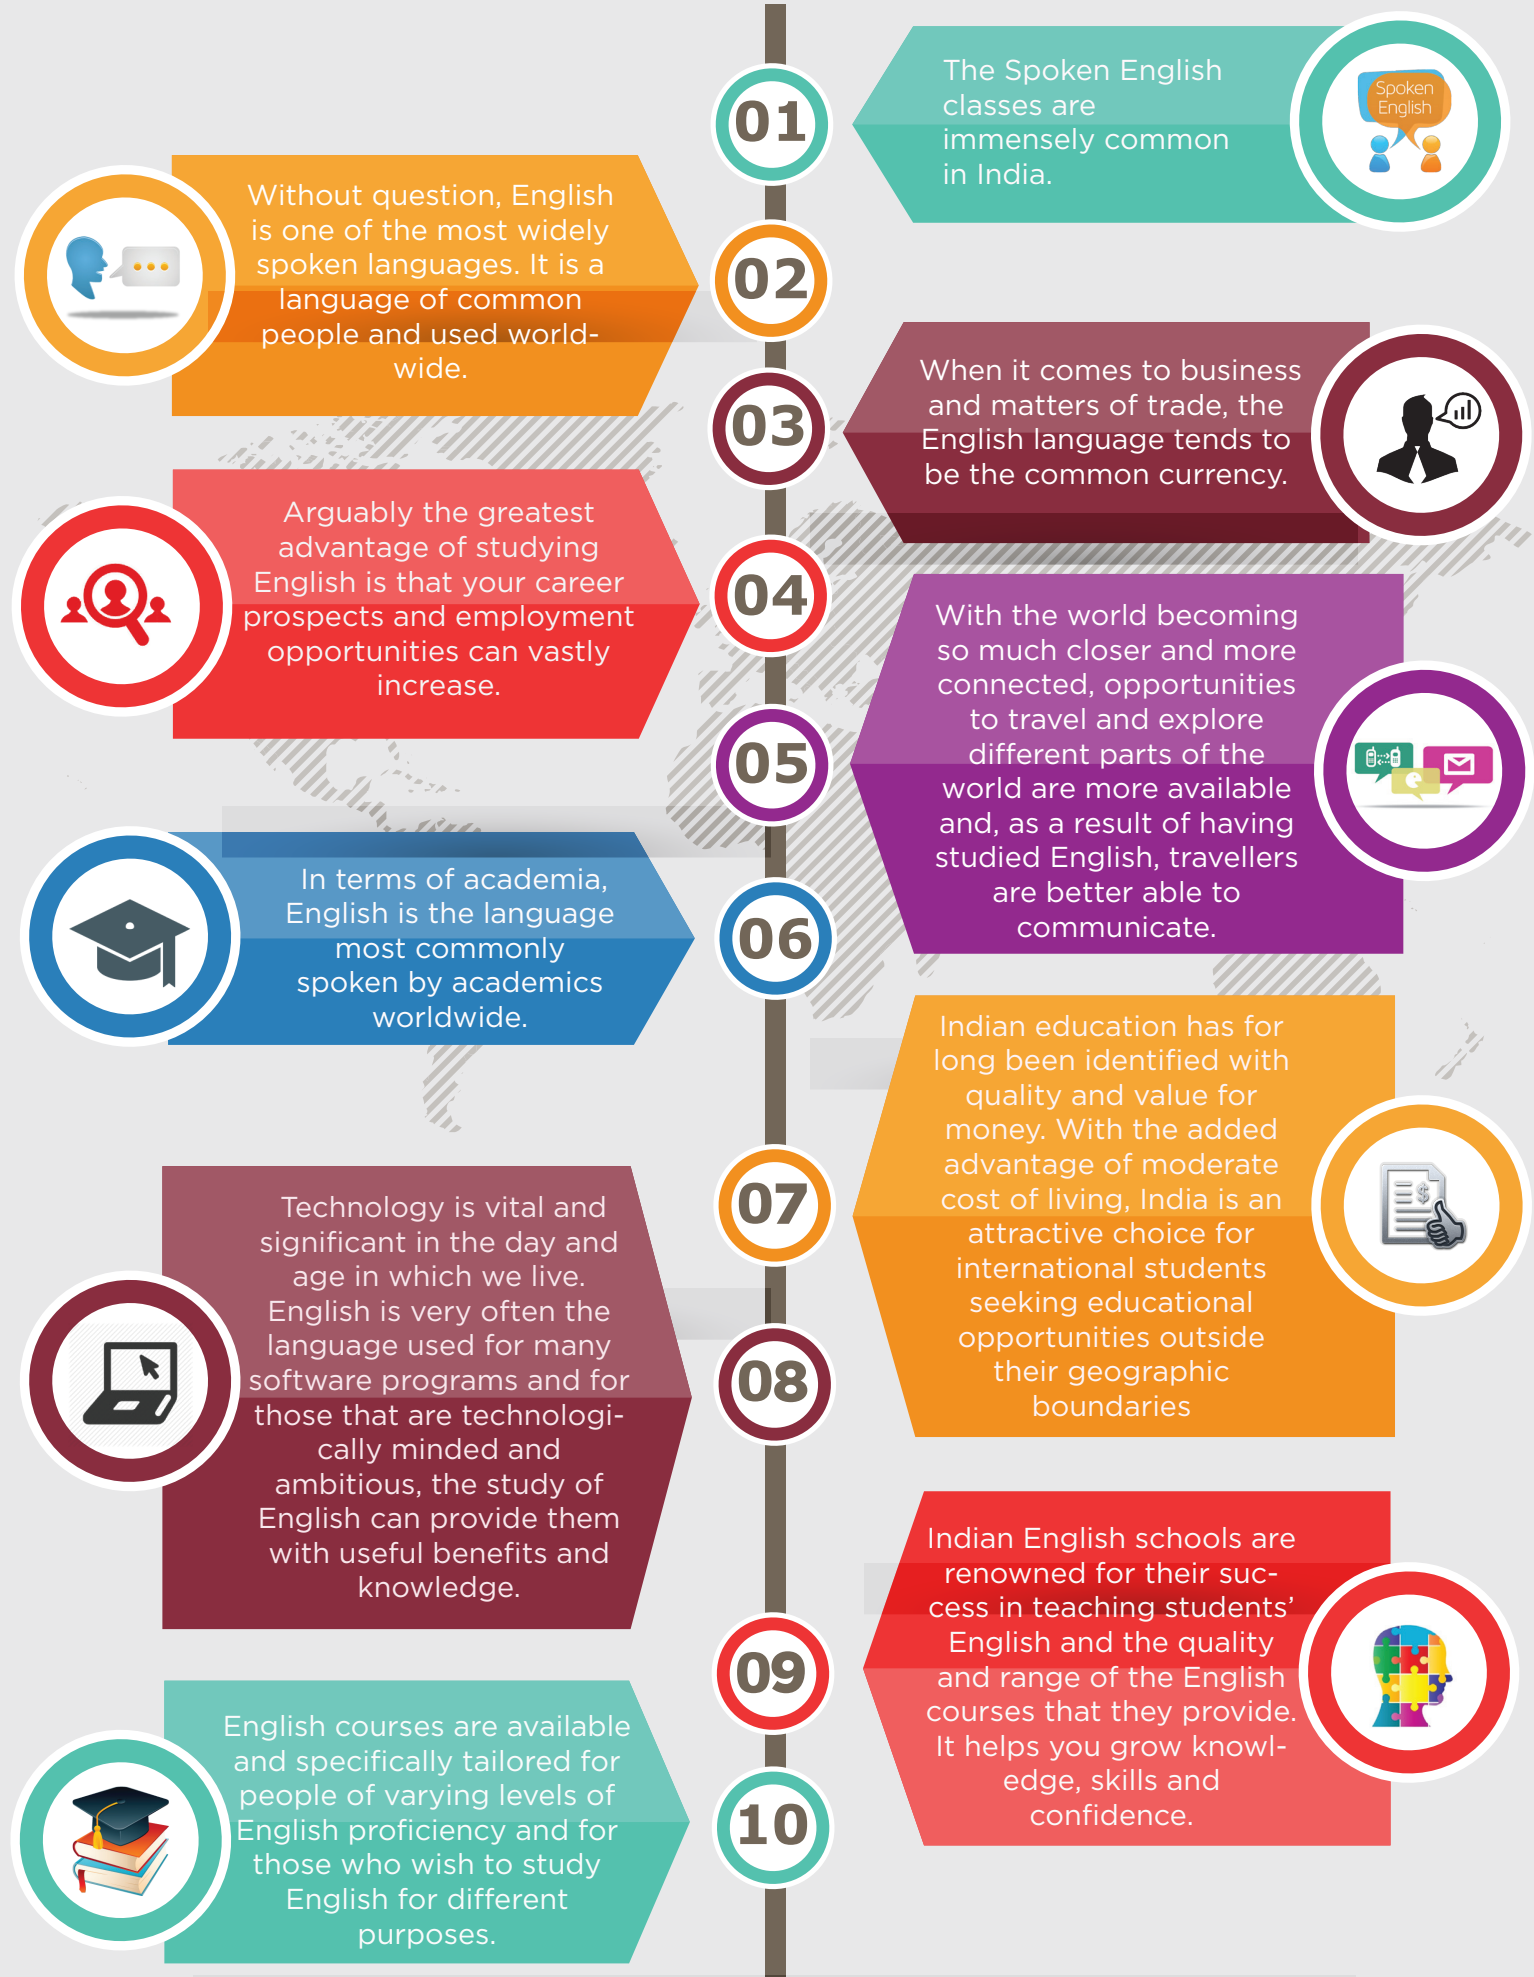

English makes it easy to understand the culture and that helps you be part of the bigger entertainment process.

Social Networking & Relationships

English is not only the main language of business, but also the main language of social interaction.

Benefits of Learning English

Additional benefits of being in India:

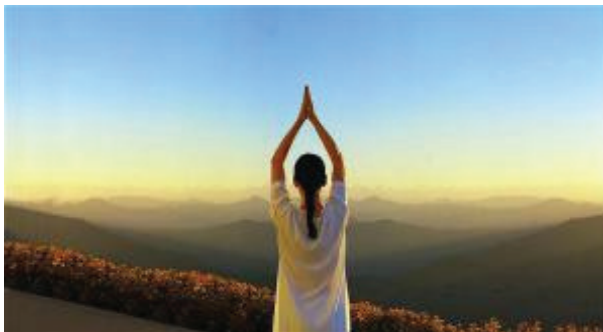

India is a Huge Country

India is a vast country that's just over one-third of the size of the United States. Much of it is rural, and there are some incredible sights to be seen & discovered.

India Hospitality

There's a saying in India, "Athithi Devo Bhava", which means "the guest is God". Indians consider it a huge honor to have guests in their home, and go out of their way to please them. There's nothing like Indian hospitality.

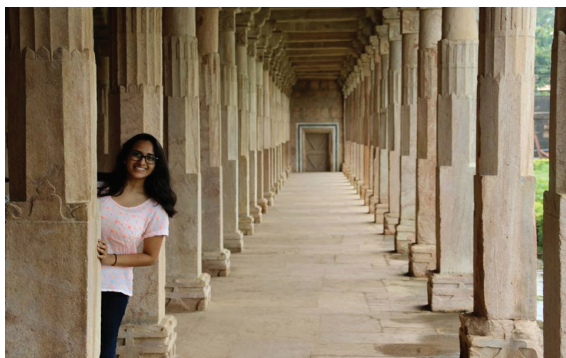

Explore Spirituality

India can be very inspiring and refreshing for the soul. Many people come to India to learn yoga, meditate, or spend time at an ashram. Another moving experience is to take part in an evening aarti (fire worship) along the Ganges river at either Rishikesh, Haridwar, or Varanasi.

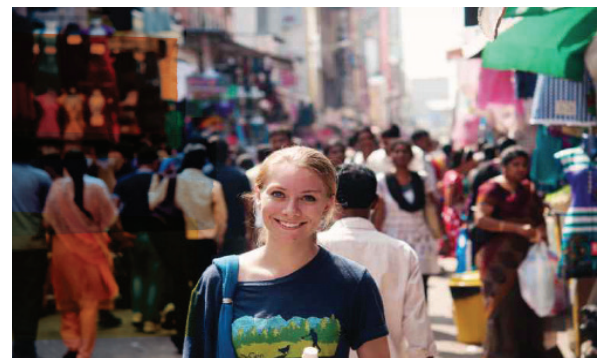

Food

Indian food can take a bit of getting used to for some people, but it really is worth it. You may be surprised to find that Indian cuisine is vastly different to the standard fare served up in most Indian restaurants, which is in fact predominantly north Indian cuisine.

History & Architecture

One of the things I always marvel at in India is the magnificent architecture found all over the country, and it varies so much where ever you go.

Your Perspective Will Be Broadened

India is a place that everyone should visit once in their lives to get out of their comfort zones and get a different perspective on life.
